- Strengthening, completing, perfecting me by His blood and making me what I ought to be and equipping me with everything good that I may carry out His will (while He Himself) is working in me and accomplishing that which is pleasing in His sight – (Hebrews 13:21).
- Causing me to rest, easing, relieving and refreshing my soul when I come to Him. I am learning of Him and finding rest for my soul – (Matthew 11:28-30). Only in God's way is rest for my soul – (Jeremiah 6:16).
- He teaches the humble, the sinner, the worshiper in His ways and leads them in the paths of peace – (Psalm 25:4-5, 9-13).
- Continuing and completing His work in me, developing and perfecting and bringing it to full completion in me – (Philippians 1:6).
- Working in me energizing and creating in me the power and desire both to will and to work for His good pleasure, satisfaction and delight – (Philippians 2:13).
- Perfecting that which concerns me – (Psalm 138:8).
- Working it all out in agreement with the counsel and design of His own will – (Ephesians 1:11).
- Performing on my behalf and rewarding me (bringing to pass His purposes for me and completing them) – (Psalm 57:2).
- Taking care of my cares and concerns as I cast them on Him – (1 Peter 5:7).
- Bringing to pass my desires as I delight in Him, as I commit them all to Him, as I trust in Him, as I am still, resting in Him, and waiting patiently for Him, leaning myself entirely upon Him – (Psalm 37:3-7).
- Directing my paths as I trust in Him and acknowledge Him in all my ways – (Proverbs 3:5-7).
